1 Read the text and answer the questions.

Hi, I'm Marc. My parents and I are English, but my grandparents were Mexican. I have wonderful memories of my grandmother. We used to sit in her kitchen together eating 'tortas' and talking. Every time I eat tortas now, it reminds me of her. My grandmother always spoke Spanish at home. Even outdoors, she still said certain words in Spanish. I asked her why she wouldn't speak English. She said that some words were better in Spanish. I agree. Since my grandmother died, I seldom hear people speaking Spanish. I really miss it!
